What is YIELD?

YIELD for Men is a 12-hour pre-adjudication program which meets for one hour, once a week, for 12 consecutive weeks. The course focuses on domestic violence, the power and control wheel, and the effects of domestic violence on families and the community utilizing interactive and challenging facilitated dialogue to encourage critical thinking.

YIELD for Men consists of six modules and participants must attend Orientation, all 12-weeks, complete an exit-interview, and remain in good standing with YIELD to successfully complete the program.
